Susie McCann's formal qualification is a Bachelor of Music Theatre. Her professional roles include musical director, vocal coach & accompanist.

Susie has much experience in teaching throughout Qld and Victoria in contemporary voice and piano. Styles covered are contemporary, music theatre & jazz. Her students have successfully undergone music exams as well as performances in local and interstate Eisteddfods & competitions.

Susie's niche lies in teaching female a cappella singing where she has led groups to the School National Finals of AUSACA: Australian A Capella Championship Awards.

She is also a professional singer, actor & voice over artist. You may have even seen her 'on the telly' in the latest Slater+Gordon TV commercial. She manages & performs with The Pacific Belles, Australia's hottest 1940's inspired trio.
