QISSN Netball and Confraternity Rugby League

Both our sporting teams performed strongly in their respective competitions that were held in the first week of holidays here on the Gold Coast. Both teams had experienced significant change as experienced Year 13 players moved on and therefore relied on the emergence of new talent among younger players.

Both teams had narrow losses in their early games. The netballers lost by 1 or 2 goals while the footballers lost their opening game to last year’s winners by 2 points despite scoring equal number of tries. This set the pattern for the first two days. These early losses were turned into comprehensive wins in the latter part of their competitions and new set both squads up for higher honours in 2015.

Congratulations to all the players especially to their coaches and managers Mrs Kim Smith and Ms Tegan Crawford for the netball and Mr Jason Hamilton and Mr Geoffrey Browne in the rugby league.

Thank you to all supporters – staff, parents, students and ex-students who watched the games throughout the week. Special acknowledgement to the additional 14 students who made themselves available to play for other schools in the rugby league. Without their involvement, those schools would not have participated in confraternity this year.

As communicated with the semester I reports, the online booking system opened this Monday for our Parent/Teacher Interviews to be held on Tuesday 22nd July from 3:20pm to 6:00pm. Be sure to keep/print a record of your interview times and teacher names. Interviews are just 10 minutes. When issues require extra time, arrange that time within your interview and then move on the chime as other parents will have interviews with that teacher following yours. Interviews will take place in the library and the Technology Building. Senior Administration staff will be available to assist you, where necessary.

Year 11 Retreat

Our Year 11 students spend the last three days on retreat at various venues around the coast and hinterland. These retreats are highly valued by the College community, as the program has been carefully thought out and meets the students ‘where they are’. It helps them to talk with each other, to understand who they are individually and as a group. It is a very positive and enjoyable experience that our students will draw on for some time as they continue to grow as young adults.

Thank you to Dolores Maitland (APRE) and Eliza Kerklaan (Campus Minister) for their organisation of the retreat, our Parish Priests for celebrating the mass with our students at the various camps and members of our staff who gave of their time and themselves to the students.

Year 7 Building

Preparations for the construction of our new classroom block commenced during the school holidays. This project is similar in scale to other recently completed buildings that now occupy. When completed the two buildings will stand adjacent to one another and will accommodate Years 7, 8 and 9 from 2015.

NADIOC Week 6 – 13 July

This year’s NAIDOC theme honours all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander men and women who have fought in defence of our country. From our warriors in the Frontier Wars, to our warriors who have served with honour and pride in Australia’s military conflicts and engagements across the globe.

We proudly highlight and recognise the role they have played in shaping our identity and pause to reflect on their sacrifice. We celebrate and honour their priceless contribution to our nation.
Welcome Back
We hope that all families enjoyed the break and that students are refreshed and ready for the new term.

Parent Teacher Interviews
If you have not already made your bookings, and you wish to speak to your son/daughter’s teachers, please make your booking soon, as they will close on Monday 21 July. It is preferable if your son/daughter attends these interviews with you as they benefit from the feedback.

Uniform Matters
We have repeated the information regarding new uniforms in this newsletter. The new uniforms will be in stock in November and are very smart.

Subject Changes - Year 9 & 10
All requests to change electives are now being finalised and students who have submitted forms have been advised of the outcome. While it has not been possible to accommodate every student request due to some classes being already full, Year 9 students will have the opportunity later this year to change their electives for Year 10 in 2015. Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any concerns regarding your son or daughter.

Marymount Tours
The next round of tours will take place this coming Monday 21st July commencing at 5:30pm. If you wish to book a place please contact the Enrolments Secretary Mrs Jan Crick 5586 1003.

Catholic Education Week
Catholic Education Week 2014 will be held from Sunday 27 July - Saturday 2 August and will focus on the theme:
‘Come, live life in all its fullness’
This inspirational call is based on the Gospel of John (10:10), challenging those who answer it to “live fully”. Reflecting this Gospel call, Catholic Schools strive to provide a learning experience through which every young person has the opportunity to reach their full human potential – spiritually, intellectually, emotionally, socially, culturally, and physically – and know what it means to engage in all that life has to offer.

The week commences with a mass with Archbishop Mark Coleridge in Brisbane on Sunday 27 July at 2:30pm where a number of our senior College leaders will represent the school. There is also a student video clip on the Catholic Education Week 2014 website depicting images of our Year 8 camp held earlier this year, celebrating Life in all its fullness.

Antiphonal Group Prayer for Priestly vocations in the Archdiocese of Brisbane

At the sight of the crowds Jesus’ heart was moved
For they were like sheep without a shepherd
Jesus said “The harvest is ready”
“But the labourers are few”
Ask the Lord to send out labourers for the harvest
O Lord we pray that young men will answer the call to become priests in Your harvest
And shepherds for your people.

Compulsory attendance at school is required in Week 1 and 3 for all students. Compulsory attendance at school is required in Week 2 and 6 for all students sitting the QCS test. A study / tutorial session each week will be offered on other Thursdays leading up to the QCS days (September 2nd and 3rd) with voluntary attendance.

Once exam block commences in Week 9 there will be no further program or attendance at school on Thursday during Sport for Year 12 students.

Code of Expected Student Behaviour

School Expectations

As members of the Marymount College Community we commit to:

• Show care and concern for ourselves and others through relationships that are courteous, just and respectful
• Moving, working, learning and playing safely
• Actively learning and assisting others with their learning
• Communicating justly
• Respect our own and others’ property and the College environment

These expectations are contained in the College Record Book and all College publications that deal with this area.

An effective behaviour management program was formulated after consultation with the Marymount College community.

The program or classroom discipline process must treat students who act inappropriately in a non-punitive and non-controlling manner, i.e. with understanding, respect and patience. With these as our guiding principles, considerable research was undertaken to formulate a whole-school approach to student behaviour management.

After consideration of a range of options, it was decided to adopt and adapt the Responsible Thinking Process (RTP).

The Responsible Thinking Process (RTP) has the basic rules of:

(a) Do the right thing
(b) Say the right thing
(c) Bring the right thing

In cases of inappropriate behaviour, the Responsible Thinking Process utilises a series of teachers who clearly articulate the eventual outcome of the process, and that students ‘choose’ that outcome.

The College has decided to shorten the process for more serious offences. In the document and College literature, they are referred to as ‘automats’. In these instances, we consider the inappropriate behaviour significant enough whereby the student is automatically sent to the Responsible Thinking Classroom (RTC).

Once a student has spent time at the RTC, a further significant element of the RTP is the requirement for student and teacher to conference and negotiate conditions for the student to return to class. The negotiation process is important where the student is able to acknowledge their inappropriate behaviour and the teacher can set expectations for the future.

Resources are also available in the College Library and the Responsible Thinking Classroom.

Geoff Browne - Acting Deputy Principal
Getting better marks has a lot to do with how you approach studying. The twelve most powerful ways to increase your marks don’t involve you working harder but they do involve you working smarter.

1. Study in silence.

This is the single most powerful way to increase your marks. Spend at least 20 minutes of your study time in silence. No texting, music or computer screens. Outcomes improve when you practice in the same conditions you want to perform in. In the exam room there won’t be music, mobile phones or computer screens.

2. Organise & transform the information you want to learn.

Just reading your notes over and over again doesn’t really work. Your memory stores information best when you organise or transform it. This means organising your notes so that the main idea is highlighted on each page. Then take your notes and turn them into a flow chart or a mind map or see if you can fit them to a song you know well or make it into a sound recording. The more times you can transform and reorganise the information the more firmly it is remembered.

3. Put off pleasurable activities until work is done.

This is a painful one but if you play computer games before you get down to studying, the levels of dopamine in your brain lessen and you will lose the drive and motivation you need to study effectively. Work first, play later.

4. Talk yourself through the steps involved.

One of the things that highly successful students do is to explain out loud to themselves the steps involved in completing a task. This applies to every subject area. By saying out loud, “First I have to do…” and so on, any part that you are uncertain about becomes clear and you can then use this to guide where you need to do more.

5. Ask for help.

Teachers want their students to be interested and to do well. You will be amazed if you ask a question how many other people don’t understand it either. If you are really scared about asking questions in class, have a private talk to your teacher about this.

6. Take notes.

Just writing down the ideas that you have makes a powerful contribution to your marks. Don’t just write down what the teacher writes. Make notes of any ideas you have as well. Never rely only on the worksheets given out by teachers or your own capacity to remember information later.

7. Write & re-write key points.

Writing the main points of the area you are learning helps you to remember them. If you can add in re-organising and transforming them into different formats (drawings, flow chats, podcasts etc.) that makes it even more powerful.

8. Make lists & set priorities.

Make a “to-do” list each week. Write down in your diary the most important things to be done in each subject each week. High scoring students do a little bit on each subject, a lot rather than doing a lot of work on one subject every so often. If you are doing subjects that involve presenting a folio or preparing a presentation, it is still important to do work on the other subject areas.

9. Prepare for class.

Become knowledgeable about the area you are learning about by doing your own research. If you can learn about the area before you start not only will you have an advantage, it will also make more sense to you as you begin classes on it. Take notes on your own research. If you can, read over your notes before class to refresh your memory.

10. Keep a record of how much study you have done.

It increases motivation when we can tick things off lists and when we can see how much we have done.

11. Use memory aides.

These are tools that help you to remember information. For example, “Every Good Boy Deserves Fruit” help people remember that EGBDF are the lines of the music staff. The rhyme, “thirty days have September, April, June and November” helps us to remember the calendar. School requires more memory skills than any job you can think of: The best way to remember something is to transform it. If it’s visual put it into words, if it’s verbal, create a picture or graph of it, use lists, acronyms, tables, graphics, and link new information to things you already know. Long-term filing works best if you go right to sleep – the minutes before bedtime are crucial.

12. Set study times.

The last method is to decide when you are most alert and to set aside one time at that time of day to study. If you wait until you are in the right mood before beginning to study, you may wait forever.

Uniform Issues - Girls
Now is the time for all our students to review the state of their uniforms in readiness for Semester Two. We are proud of our College uniform and we expect all students to wear it with pride.

I am disappointed in the way that many of our girls are not wearing the skirt at the appropriate length. Some of our older students are still wearing the skirt that was purchased when they started the College and are much too short. The skirt should be on the knee.

The present stock of skirts will be available at a reduced price. Please take advantage of this opportunity to replace the skirt and the shirt if necessary.

The NEW skirt that will be available in November is set at the appropriate length and adjustments will NOT be necessary.

INDIGENOUS NEWS

NURA GILI WINTER SCHOOL – AMY WEATHERALL

If anyone had told me I would be happy to spend a week of my holidays at school I would have thought they were crazy. But that was before I had attended the UNSW Nura Gili Winter School.

With a theme of “Ignite your light and let it shine” taken from Katy Perry's Firework, it was a wonderful experience that gave me an insight into university life and gave me the opportunity to meet some amazing like-minded people who not only shared many of my interests but my pride in my heritage as well.

The week was jammed pack from beginning to end with lectures, guest speakers and excursions. There was still plenty of fun times though, when we bonded over games, trivia competitions and discos, and a moment of friendly rivalry as we Queenslanders rejoiced quietly in our triumph.

The week passed too quickly and after a symbolic graduation ceremony it was time to say goodbye to people we had shared so much with in such a short time. For me it was a privilege to have this amazing opportunity and get to know so many wonderful people. And I know that every time I hear Katy Perry's “Firework” play I’ll remember fondly the week I spent at UNSW Nura Gili Winter School.

Thanks so much to all our supervisors who looked after us and to all my fellow participants. Good luck with everything in the future, I hope we stay in touch.

QLD SNOWBOARDING CHAMPIONSHIPS – ZACH SMITH

Not content with Gold Coast’s freezing temperatures, Zach Smith spent his holidays at the snowfields representing Marymount at the Queensland Snowboarding Championships. After a gruelling competition Zach went on to secure 2nd place, beaten by a mere 0.23 seconds, earning him the rank of second in Queensland. Way to go, Zach!

CONFRATERNITY – NICK MUIR

Congratulations to Nick Muir who was the only Year 10 student to make it into Marymount’s Confraternity Team. This was a wonderful achievement for Nick who has trained hard all year without complaint. The Team played well in what was a fiercely tough competition and all the boys and Mr. Hamilton should be proud of their efforts.

CONFRATERNITY – CASEY RANDALL

There were several schools who were not able to field complete teams for Confraternity and were helped out by a dozen Marymount players so that their teams were still able to compete. We congratulate Casey Randall (Year 10) who was selected to play for Emmaus College, Jimboomba. He played extremely well for the team and helped these students realize their Confro dream.

Year 12 UPDATE

As we near the important date of August 2, we urge parents to check with their sons/daughter regarding arrangements for this night of nights on the Year 12 calendar.

We encourage our young ladies to please ‘break-in’ their new shoes for the Formal by wearing them around the house. Get used to walking in them so that you can be confident for the red carpet entrance and of course the dancing later in the evening.

QCS Practice Days

A reminder to all students sitting the QCS test in September, that there will be two compulsory Practice Days. These are Thursday 24 July and Thursday 21 August. At this time, students will be asked to bring in the required equipment for each of the tests. This will be left after the Practice Test and stored in named plastic bags, ready for use on the days of the ‘real’ tests.

NOTE: Each test will require a set of equipment. For example, you will need 3 black pens – one for each of the tests mentioned. The Multiple Choice set will be reused. Students must bring in their own approved calculators on the Practice days as well as the days of the QCS Tests. These will not be collected and stored on the students’ behalf.

Wishing all our students a relaxing and safe holiday break.

For those members of Confraternity and QISSN playing during the first week of the break, ‘only the best!’

BUSINESS WEEK - "THE BEST THING SINCE SLICE BREAD"

Keeping the students vitally interested in their work, wanting to stay for the last week of term – what a success! All Departments should look at a program of activities to engage students to the very end of term.

The concept of the Venture Pitch provides students with the opportunity to present to the investors (real entrepreneurs from the community) a persuasive pitch, standing in front of them and answering substantial queries concerning their proposed business.

Industry leaders who are part of this program come and present their ideas on starting a business and provide invaluable insight and make positive judgements to assist students in achieving their goals.

Thank you Colleen and the staff of the Business Department for coming up with this initiative and making it work so superbly. The students have and will continue to benefit from your organisation of this program.

Irene Scott - Year 12 Assistant Coordinator/Yearbook Coordinator

Advantages of school-based apprenticeships and traineeships (SATs)

School-based apprenticeships and traineeships help young people to go places ... whether that's a full-time job, a trade career, university, TAFE or other training. The workplace skills and confidence they gain during their school-based apprenticeship or traineeship provide a solid foundation for any career.

Some of the advantages of school-based apprenticeships and traineeships include:

More flexibility and variety

The variety provided by school-based apprenticeships and traineeships can have enormous benefits for young people who prefer hands-on learning to traditional schooling pathways.

Head start in a career

Young people employed as school-based apprentices and trainees develop workplace skills, knowledge, confidence and have a competitive edge when applying for jobs. A school-based apprenticeship or traineeship can lead directly to full-time employment once a student has left school.

Nationally recognised qualifications

All school-based apprentices and trainees participate in vocational training that contributes to a Certificate II, III or higher vocational qualification which can count towards the student’s Queensland Certificate of Education (QCE).

An opportunity to learn and earn

School-based apprentices and trainees are paid while they learn workplace skills, gain confidence, and adapt to a work environment. It gives the student the opportunity to put skills learnt at school into practice in a real work environment.

Trent Balym - Head of Sport
While Marymount College has slipped on the overall results table of the Queensland Independent Secondary Schools Rugby League competition the commitment of those involved certainly has not.

This year’s Confraternity Carnival was hosted by Aquinas College, Ashmore, and was a challenging week for our team. Heading into the week with high expectations after good performances in the preceding two carnivals (finishing 9th out of 44) and nine months of hard work we were hoping to finish in the top 8 this year.

Once again being seeded in the top pool of A Division saw Marymount do battle with three of the states traditionally strong rugby league colleges. Without scoring a victory in the three tight pool matches the team had to overcome a deal of disappointment which they did through strong leadership and a belief that their luck would change and all of the hard work would eventually pay off.

The first match saw us up against Ignatius Park College, Townsville. Iggy Park had won the carnival for the last three years and were going to be formidable opponents. The match started well with our boys scoring an unconverted try through Matt Popovic but then letting the opposition strike straight back with a converted try. The first half was tight with Marymount down by two, 4-6, at the break. The second half was a seesawing affair with both teams scoring two converted tries. Ours were scored by Nick Bond and Tom Popovic. Riley Glover kicked the goals. At the end of a game that surprised many, Marymount were unlucky to go down 16-18. IPC finished 3rd overall.

Spirits were high as we headed back to our accommodation at Labrador for an ice pool session, rest and feed. Apart from a few bumps and bruises the team was still at full strength. This was soon to change...

St Mary’s College, Toowoomba, were our opponents in our second match at Parkwood Sharks JRLC. Once again we started well with a converted try to Riley Glover in the first half, this was however punctuated by a short period of inattention which saw St Mary’s score three quick tries to lead 6-16 at the break. After catching their breath at half-time and being reminded of the game plan Marymount went on to win the second half 6-0 through an individually brilliant converted try by Lachlan Smith. This was not enough however to retake the lead and we went down 12-16.

Unfortunately in this match we lost the services of our barnstorming centre Nick Bond to a broken thumb. This was a major loss to the team both on and off the field. Nick was operated on the next morning and rejoined the team, after recovering, for the remainder of the week.

Tuesday morning, back at Aquinas, had us pitted against St Patrick’s College, Mackay. The team went into the game confidently and began well with desperate defence and good structure. Riley Glover kicked the goals. At the end of a game that surprised many, Marymount were unlucky to go down 16-18. IPC finished 3rd overall.

Tuesday morning, back at Aquinas, had us pitted against St Patrick’s College, Mackay. The team went into the game confidently and began well with desperate defence and good structure. Riley Glover scored again to take us to the break at 6-6. Marymount was held scoreless in the second-half while St Pat’s scored twice to take it out 6-14. At the end of the week SPC would be placed 6th.

Matt Ash, Off-field Captain, was injured during this game and would be out for the match that afternoon. This now meant that the team were without two of their better ‘metre makers’.
It was obvious from the first three games that we were not too far off the pace. Our defence was generally solid, if not a touch unlucky, but penetrating the opposition line and achieving quick play the balls was going to be the challenge.

The quarterfinal was played against our round two opponents, St Mary's. This is the game a team need to win to have a shot at contesting a semi-final on the Thursday, the loser goes to series of playoffs. Marymount performed courageously and were never out of touch but it wasn’t to be. The score finished at 0-10 to a well drilled St Mary’s who would eventually finish 10th in the Carnival.

In this match we lost Cameron Cooper to a dislocated shoulder. Cameron, in year 11 who has had a horrible run of injuries, played manfully and tried to carry on but it wasn’t possible. 2015 will be his year.

Brandon Cittadini-Smith was also ruled out for the next match through injury. Brandon was playing well in a variety of positions in his third Confro.

Wednesday was the traditional rest day. Our players were give the chance to go home and enjoy their own bed, some of mum’s cooking and return fully charged with a view to finishing our final two games on a high.

When the team regathered many of them bought their families along to share in a thank you BBQ with the team and coaching staff. This is a function that we try to run when distance allows. It was rewarding to see the boys share a meal with their parents and express their appreciation for what their families have provided for them as young men.

There was no need to motivate The Makos for the next game – it was time for a win. We all believed that the luck had to change. Our opponents were none other than Ryan Catholic College, Townsville, whom Marymount had defeated in the 2013 Bob Lindner Trophy Grand Final. Prior to going to the field the boys went to cheer on the QISSN girls, who were also having a tough week. The support shown for each other was great and led to improved results for both Marymount teams.

The Ryan side was another team that out sized us and with three players unable to play it was going to be tough. As predicted the game was a dogfight with both teams doing whatever was necessary and keeping each other scoreless in the first-half. The second-half was a different story...Ryan broke the deadlock with a penalty goal to go ahead 0-2. This raised the level of desperation in our boys who then scored two quick tries to Matt Popovic and Riley Glover. Glover converted both to take the final score to 12-2.

The match was cut short with an injury to Sam Clark whilst performing a try saving tackle. Sam was taken away in an ambulance and spent time being observed in hospital before re-joining the group for the final day. By this stage we were becoming used to the casualty ward at Gold Coast University Hospital.

So the final match was to be played against our Gold Coast neighbours, Aquinas College, with whom we share a friendly rivalry. It was as though it had been planned from the beginning that we would meet on the last day to decide which college would take the mantle as top Gold Coast Catholic College for 2014. The organisers even moved the game from Parkwood to Aquinas such was the importance of the result. This suited Marymount just fine.

The match started with a determined effort on both parts. Aquinas scored to take the lead 0-6 but unfortunately for them that was all they could muster. Marymount, with three players unavailable, went to the break leading 22-6. First-half tries were scored by Tom Popovic, Lachlan Smith, Riley Glover and Bayley Gill. Riley converted three of the four. There wasn’t a lot to be said in the huddle at half time that hadn’t already been covered during the week. The boys went on with the job in the second half with Sam Kennedy scoring a very well deserved try that Glover converted. There was a pause during the second-half where Matthew Egan was assessed after an injury, but by this time the result was sealed 28-6.

At the end of each game a QISSRL selector addresses both teams and presents his Man of the Match awards, similarly after each match our boys vote for their MVP (who cannot be the same player who received the selector’s award). Those who received one of these awards are listed below:

Well done to the six young men who have been a part of our Confraternity Team for the past three seasons. It is a massive commitment on the part of themselves and their families. To Nick Bond, Brandon Cittadini-Smith, Liam Donnelly, Riley Glover and Zac Hamilton thanks for the efforts you have made to bring our program to where it is. Don’t be too disappointed with this year’s result – you each did all you could do and we are close because of it.

As a result of Confro 2014 these team awards were presented:

Most Points Scored | Riley Glover (38 – 4 tries & 11/13 conversions)
Most MVP Votes | Liam Donnelly (22)
Highest Training Attendance | Zac Hamilton (46/53)
Best Forward | Kyle Torok
Best Back | Matt Popovic
Best and Fairest | Riley Glover
Most Improved | Ben Moroney

Well done to all members of the team on what has been an excellent time. In particular congratulations to both Captains, Liam Donnelly and Matt Ash, on the maturity they showed in leading their team throughout the season and especially during our time away.

Thank you to all of the supporters who made the journey to support the boys throughout the week. It was really uplifting for the team to see not only their parents and friends but also teachers and ex-students on the sidelines cheering them on. We hope to see as much support in Ipswich next year.

Finally a big thank you to the coaching staff without whom the team would not function. Thanks to our Trainers, Mark McMahon, Sam Harreman and Nathan Thomas for continually taking time off work and away from your families to give to the team. To Matt Foster (Co-coach) for the humour and knowledge you bring to our group. Finally to Mr Geoff Browne (Manager) for his many hours behind the scenes ensuring everything is running smoothly.

In the wash-up from this year’s carnival it is apparent that, while our boys train exceptionally hard and play with great team spirit, we lack the depth that comes from having a majority of players who play week in - week out club rugby league. This year less than half of the 20 players regularly play the game. Three matches in the Titans Cup and a handful of trial matches just aren’t enough. From 2015 and beyond it seems that there are more club players coming through our College. This will be a bonus and will help us compete even more so with the top schools.
