Janie-Marie graduated from the College in 2012, is currently working as a teacher-aide in learning support and pursuing Arts and Education qualifications. Students, parents and staff listen closely to good guest speakers and Danielle and Jane-Marie were excellent speakers and it is wonderful that both will be joining the teaching profession.
1st XIII Victorious

Locked at 4-4 following a vigorous first half of agile attack and punishing defence from both teams, Marymount prevailed over a determined Palm Beach Currumbin side 20-4. Showing composure, learnt in the intensity of Confraternity week, the team established a 10-4 lead mid-way through the second half and finishing with a further two tries and a conversion. Lachlan Smith was man of the match in a great team effort. Congratulations to Cameron Cooper and all the players. Thank you to the many student, parent and staff supporters on a cold and damp evening. Well done Mr Hamilton, Mr Geyer, Mr Browne and Mr Foster.

At the sight of the crowds Jesus' heart was moved
For they were like sheep without a Shepherd
Jesus said "The harvest is ready,
but the Labourers are few"
Ask the Lord to send out Labourers for the harvest
O Lord we pray that young men will answer the call to become priests in Your harvest
And shepherd for your people

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Catholic Education Week, celebrated from 26 July - 1 August, has as its 2015 theme Engaging Minds. Igniting Hearts. Serving Others.

This year a Catholic Education Week Festival will be held at St Stephens Cathedral over three days from 28 July - giving students a unique perspective on the history and role of the Church in Catholic education. Many activities will be happening involving students from schools across the Archdiocese.

Ten Marymount students from Years 8-10 will have a wonderful experience as Catholic Leader reporters for the day and will work out of the on site newsroom. This is a wonderful opportunity for the students to experience real life media reporting and for readers to hear young people’s perspectives on the events.

Year 11 Retreat

The Year 11 Retreat which took place in Week 1 has been an outstanding success, evidenced in the expressions of appreciation coming from many students in the year group and the atmosphere of bright spirits across the campus. It is only in the experience of these Retreats that the full value of this work can be understood. The Senior Retreats are a long standing tradition of the College and these bring many blessings to the students and the rest of our community.

Sincere thanks to everyone who has helped make the Retreat possible either as a Retreat Team member, or in taking classes back at the College. Very special thanks to our Parish Priest, Fr Ken Howell, to Fr Lucius and Fr Stephen, Fr Peter Gablonski ,Parish Priest at Boonah and Fr Chima Ofor, Petrie Parish Priest for attending at the venues and celebrating Mass.

There is only one week remaining for students to make subject selection alterations. After that they must remain on their current load for the semester.

A form, available for SAO, must be signed off by parents and returned. Students are at liberty to change subjects for the semester, as long as the usual requirements are met - they remain OP eligible, they keep the core subjects of English, RE and Maths (Year 10) there are places available in the new subject, and there has been a discussion with the Academic Coordinator about picking up a new elective for the first time. A full assessment load schedule for the semester will be published at the end of Week 3.

DANCE CONGRATULATIONS AND CHOOKAS!

Chookas (good luck in dance-speak) to our Year 8, 9 and 10 dancers from the Senior Extension Dance Team as they compete at the ‘Dancelife Unite’ Eisteddfod tomorrow at 1.00pm at the Nerang Bicentennial Hall.

They have been rehearsing routines plus organising dozens of costume items and are excited to be representing Marymount College in this new national competition.

Congratulations to these dancers also after competing last Sunday at the ‘Get the Beat’ competition at Dreamworld where they received Second Place in Musical Theatre for Run and Tell That! Marymount College was the only high school to perform amongst the private dance schools and it was a vibrant, fun competition. The Dance Extension team was excited to perform on the Big Brother stage!

Finally, this being a whirlwind eisteddfod time, all of our dance troupes will compete in the coming weeks at the Beenleigh and Gold Coast Eisteddfods. Dancers from Years 7-12 are busily preparing for these challenging, but exciting, performances.

‘Chookas’ to our Extension dance Team for tomorrow afternoon’s Dancelife Unite competition. Spectators are welcome; we would love to see you come and support your Marymount dancers from 1.00pm-3.00pm at the Nerang Bicentennial Hall.

DEBATING

This year debaters throughout the high schools have gone through a series of tough rounds. At the start of the year debaters were able to bring a prepared speech, but nothing could have prepared them for the “knock-out” rounds.

During these rounds teams were required to go to All Saints Anglican School (where the debating is held) an hour before the debate started, equipped with only a pen, palm cards, a dictionary and a thesaurus. They had no internet, just their minds! There are four members in each team, three people speak and the fourth is the chairperson/time keeper.

The strength of each team was tested and members had to overcome anxiety. Debating is a great learning experience and will benefit you for the future. It challenges your intellect; it teaches you how to think on your feet and develops your skills of logic and reasoning.

The debating team I participate in is not yet knocked-out and if we win a few more rounds we will be in the grand final.

YEAR 9 SCIENCE UPDATE

Term 3 has made its entrance and already we have assignments, exams &... well... more assignments! The one assignment that has me rather intrigued is the Science Night Assignment.

Last term we had our assignments handed out, and had our topics chosen, during the holidays some of us began our journals and with the arrival of Term 3, we all have research, diary entries and our minds ticking. Personally, I really look forward to the night where all of the fascinating Science projects are exhibited and Science is all over the school, since Science is one of my favourite subjects!

This term in Year 9 Science, we are exploring the earth; its tectonic plates, layers and how the earth works... For me, this is a topic with which I am fascinated and really like. So far, I am really enjoying it since my Science teacher, Mrs Steele, makes the classes rather fun and interesting, and helps me expand my knowledge even further than in the past.

Hopefully everyone is on their way to making a fascinating project, which I am sure you cannot wait to see, because I certainly can’t!

Science Night is on Wednesday 12 September, so save the day!

Students Personal Accident Insurance – School Care

As has the case in recent years, Marymount College has engaged Catholic Church Insurances to provide Students Personal Accident Insurance. Injuries incurred students undertaking School Activities only are covered at the Basic Cover level. It is important to note however that by legislation, this insurance does not cover medical expenses for which a Medicare benefit is payable. ROSIES FRIENDS ON THE STREET

Last Thursday evening myself and five Year 12 students braved the cold and joined the amazing volunteers at Rosies Outreach in Southport.

Students were upbeat and kind to the patrons all evening and enjoyed every stage from preparing and reheating the food to packaging and service.

I found the experience very humbling by meeting and talking to the wonderful volunteers who ensure that the street people of our community are well fed, clothed and healthy, physically and mentally. It was also wonderful to see the generosity of local businesses who donated pies, bread rolls, stews, sandwiches and various baked goods.

YEAR 11 COORDINATORS REPORT

Our semester began with Year 11 students heading off on one of the most significant events of the year, their first retreat experience. The cohort was split into groups of around 40 students and sent to five different locations. Whilst the combination of staff and students was unique to each location, the core messages delivered were the same.

During their three days on retreat, students were asked to reflect on who they are as a person, who they want to be and what they need to do in order to be that person. They spent time identifying their understanding of themselves, examined the relationships in their lives and which of those need to be nurtured, considered their position as one of God’s children and explored their purpose in this world, discussed aspects of their lives that were stressful and how they could deal with them and looked at the values they hold that are shaping their lives.

Throughout the experience there was an emphasis on positivity and environments of trust and respect were created to allow the students to feel comfortable sharing of themselves with the rest of their group. New bonds were formed and existing bonds were strengthened as the students embraced the opportunity to get to know themselves and each other on a deeper level. It was inspiring to witness the courage of the students as they allowed others to see who they truly were and heart warming to see the compassionate response of their peers as they recognized the importance of each person’s stories and experiences.

Upon returning to school we hope that these connections are nurtured and the year group can move forward on the next part of their schooling life with a greater respect and understanding for each other.

A huge thank you to the staff that attended retreat and helped to foster the environments that allowed the students to feel safe, valued and respected.

Matt Carroll
Year 11 Coordinator
Year 11 Retreat is a time I will never forget.

It was daunting, strange, took all of us out of the comfort zone of our friendship groups and from a mobile phone service and the Internet. However, it helped us form new friendships, strengthen old ones and brought everyone together.

I was able to get to know a group of 6 girls that I have been friends with for years, but the bond we share now, is closer and stronger than ever before. I was able to talk with people that I’ve never spoken to before and took part in activities that were completely bizarre (like throwing a bunch of balloons up in the air and not letting them touch the ground).

Although it was incredibly cold and my cabin felt like a freezer every night, I had the best time ever imaginable!

Ashley Pade
Year 11 reporter and participant

Year 11 students were taken away from our everyday busy lives to a peaceful camp called Bornhoffen.

Surrounded by cows, lush green agricultural land and vast mountains, the area was a great setting to think about ourselves and interact with our fellow peers. Retreat definitely brought me closer to my friends and gave me the opportunity to talk with people I don’t usually associate with. Many memories were made, that will be treasured forever. I would like to thank the teachers for making this memorable experience possible.

Shamini Perera
Year 11 reporter and participant
As a STAC representative of Year 11, watching and being a part of the bonding between my peers and myself was a very rewarding and privileged experience.

To begin Year 11s second semester this year, we were all split up into five different groups and went to different locations to reflect and share our own personal life experiences and to learn more than just what is on the ‘outside’ of our peers.

This year, all STAC representatives for each grade were asked to pick a theme. For Year 11 we decided to choose the theme “Bonding” as we believed it was imperative for our grade to be close to make our final years of schooling most enjoyable. My Retreat at Kindilan in Redland Bay, I feel helped achieve our grade’s aim - to connect. Everyone respected and was very understanding of people’s personal lives and experiences, which taught the group to be willing to talk to new people and create new, special bonds.

Retreat was a big eye opener for me as it made me believe that having faith in God and the people around you, can help you reach your goals and dreams. I hope to work hand in hand with my grade to help make the most of our final years of high school and Retreat for me is something I know that will be most memorable.

Karla MacPherson

STAC Representative and reporter

For me, the Year 11 Retreat was a highly anticipated ‘escape’ from everything that was clouding my mind. I, along with many of my classmates, had the opportunity to share my concerns with peers, I normally would not have the opportunity to do so.

I think it was a huge eye-opener for everyone, regarding our own perceptions of those who were in our camp. Retreat gave us the chance to go beyond our friendship groups and actually get to know our peers for who they are, not for who they appear to be.

But the most important aspect of Retreat, was gaining a deeper understanding of who I am and what God means to me. By the end of the experience, I realised that although we have all gone through negative experiences, it doesn’t necessarily have to define us, or be a bad thing. It’s what we do with those experiences that makes us who we are; that helps us grow into the person God intended us to become. Retreat has taught me, more than anything, that everything happens for a reason. We may not register what that reason is straight away, but that’s perfectly normal. After all, life’s greatest secrets are always hidden in the most unlikely of places.

Daniella Lanci

Year 11 reporter and participant
After two terms of senior schooling it felt like a Retreat was well deserved, if only to get the three days off school!

But, after the first few hours, it was easy to see that it was about more than just skipping class. Marsden lacked the scenic flare of the other camps but had it’s own little charm with a fire pit and a dining hall with great food. Mrs Seggy, Mr Shaw, Mrs Aki, Campus Minister Edwin, were an amazing ensemble of teachers to have on Retreat and their efforts made it a remarkable experience that I will never forget. Thank you to everyone who made Retreat possible for us.

Phillip Oliver
Year 11 reporter and participant
Retreat is a word that generally means refuge, sanctuary and withdrawal; this is exactly what it achieved for Year 11. I was one of 48 students given the opportunity to find refuge on Mt Tambourine, sheltered by Mrs Scott, Miss Lowe and Mr Crowley.

Activities we were given on each of the three days, were designed to invoke trust in one another, spiritually and physically and to form friendships and connections that allowed us to understand and appreciate each other - who they are and where they’ve come from.

We were fed, A LOT, and given an experience that will stay with us until or if we lose our memory. Throughout Retreat there were many activities and sessions, which allowed us to spiritually connect and reflect on our time at school and friendships we’ve made. In many ways Retreat was something that brought us closer to God as we were given the opportunity to think, pray and disconnect from material possessions such as laptops and phones to truly concentrate on the present and the people around us.

This experience was such a growing expedition where I know for a fact that I loved the friendships I found in the people on my retreat, are so beyond my expectations. I got to know so many people in depth and even formed stronger bonds with the teachers who looked out for us. Overall my only regret is how soon we had to leave, the experience was amazing and I am so grateful for the gift of experiencing that.

The Aquis Gold Coast Titans Cup & Challenge grand finals were held Wednesday night in wet and miserable conditions at Nerang. School teams and supporters braved the conditions in what was an entertaining night of rugby league.

For the Titans Cup grand final, it was Marymount College who were heavy favourites to take the title from the underdogs Palm Beach Currumbin State High.

With the rain easing for their match, it was still a greasy affair with both teams only managing single unconverted tries to go into half-time at 4-all.

After absorbing plenty of Palm Beach Currumbin’s attack, Marymount knuckled down and played smart wet weather football, kicking the ball deep into their opposition’s end of the field. The continued pressure paid dividends for Marymount scoring another three tries and two conversions to take a match winning lead of 20-4.

Tries were scored by Lachlan Smith, Jack Nelson and Ben Moroney. Bayley Gill kicked 2 from 4 attempts at conversion. Congratulations to Lachlan Smith who was named as Titans Cup Player of the Competition.
