Child Protection Week
Child protection is everyone’s business. The responsibility lies with adults in keeping children safe from harm. All members of society need to play a part in ensuring children are nurtured and safe. Listening to children and young people is the number one way to assist in ensuring their safety and well-being. Children and young people are honest. They are unlikely to lie about abuse. They are more likely to stay quiet about abuse or harm than to speak up (especially if they know their abuser). Children speaking out about their abuse are often disbelieved or ignored. Parents, professionals and community members all need to hear what children say and seek advice in ensuring they respond appropriately to children when they speak out about abuse.

Research shows that children often communicate signs of abuse by statements such as: regularly complaining of ailments such as tummy aches and headaches with no other causation. When feeling concerned adults and/or children need to speak out and seek assistance. Trust yourself. Anything that doesn’t feel right (such as ‘gut feelings’) needs to be paid attention to. Given that research shows that adults often don’t hear what children say, for children that means that they may need to tell up to 6 adults before someone hears them about their abuse (ACF 2010).

Research also demonstrates that after telling one adult who does not listen children and young people most commonly shut down and stop speaking. Adults need to pay attention to children who speak out about abuse. Most children stay silent because the abuser has insisted they do so. This is a major part of grooming and ensuring they as the perpetrator remain safe from detection or prosecution. On the rare occasion that children or young people can and do speak out they need to be heard and given an appropriate response to ensure their safety and well-being. It is unusual for children who are being abused to tell someone. When this does occur, that someone needs to pay attention.

Reporting concerns about the safety of children and young people is a mandatory responsibility for College staff and volunteers. The following Student Protection Contacts are available to assist students, parents, staff and volunteers to ensure the safety of children and young people:

How were the Plays?

Quite special. Being a parent, a teacher, watching a play, seeing young people we know so well in everyday contexts, come to life in character on stage is a joy. They reveal themselves as another as they tell a fuller story of who they are, and perhaps, of who they yearn to be. Fully alive under lights, from centre of attention, to part of a scene, as the play creates an illusion and tells a story pointing to deeper truths about players, characters and life. They have certainly had great fun and learnt much about acting and themselves in the process.

A process this term that saw the students receive acclaim through the Gold Coast Drama Competition for the Junior Play – Merry Regiment of Women, a critique of Shakespeare’s use of female characters; the intermediate play – Lord of the Flies, a reprise of Golding’s exploration of male violence; and the Senior Play – The Harbinger, a story of hope, of regret and love.

The actors were superb, their performances absorbing and the plays thoroughly entertaining. Thanks to all for your preparation over the term and your ‘command performance’ for us on Thursday evening.

They clearly appreciated the direction of Mrs Melanie Howe (Junior), Ms Emma Burrows (Intermediate) and Ms Teagan Griffey and Ms Jessica Stafford (Senior). Finally, the Directors were most appreciative of the backstage support of Ms Deanne Seigle-Buyat and Sound and Lighting work by Lachlan Grant (Senior 2015 and UQ undergraduate).

Confirmations for tomorrow’s reunion of former students from 10, 20, 30 and 40 years ago ensure a great experience for all who will attend. The occasion is about the stories of these former students, shared with former class mates and teachers. It will be celebrated in the forecourt of the Franciscan Centre. The adjacent lawns are where our guests will remember their former classrooms, the convent and College Chapel once stood. We welcome all and trust they share an enjoyable afternoon.

Success at Ormeau Fair

Congratulations to our Rock Bands on their outstanding performances at the Lion’s Club Ormeau Fair. Yes, we know young guitarists, drummers and vocalists like to get together, play their rock music, and make a lot of noise. However, thanks to the wonderful talent and the College music program’s focus on classical skills and musicianship, these are really good rock bands.

Year 12 Exam Block
The Year 12 Exam block continues until the end of term. Students may have exam block privileges withdrawn if there is outstanding assessment or other issues of concern. All assessment tasks must always be completed.

Verification
At the end of the Term many student folios will be sent off for audit and review through the Verification process. Panels of subject teachers form across the State to review the completed folios of work to date. We have many of our own staff on these Panels. This always occurs on the Monday of Week 3 in Term IV; which why this is a pupil-free day.

Year 11 Exam Block
Year 11 Exam Block commences on Tuesday 13 September for the remainder of the term. (Monday 12 September is a normal day of school for Year 11.)

2017 Timetable
We will continue to develop the 2017 timetable now that we have Year 11 2017 subject choices in. We are also collating the subject choices for the other year levels. All this data needs to be combined, so as to begin developing Lines of core and elective classes across the entire school. This is a significant task and takes several weeks.

FAMILIES BACK ON TRACK

My first Families Back on Track outreach last week, was an amazing experience. Seeing our students interact with the children there was heart warming.

The parents of the children were very grateful for the opportunity to talk to us and for their children to be entertained.

The many activities organised by our Marymount students, like, face painting, running races, football and basketball games got everyone excited and involved. Then there were the milk shakes, bbq and giant ice cream scoops that were a big draw with the residents. We left behind a very grateful group of people and came away with very good and varied experiences. Thanks to Edwin for organising this wonderful opportunity for our students.

Brendan Crowley
Science Teacher

The past week has been rather quiet compared to last week with the preparations and celebration of Marymount Day.

On Wednesday ten College students from across the year groups attended the special World Children’s Mission Mass at St Brigid’s Nerang. Students from several schools across the Gold Coast were also present. As October is World Mission Month these students will hopefully spearhead or awareness campaign to raise funds for Catholic Mission throughout Term 4.

The 2016 Catholic Mission theme is “just as you did it to one of these …you did it to me” and focus country is Cambodia. A major fundraising event will be Odd Socks Day.

At Monday afternoon’s Staff Meeting we enjoyed a visit from our Parish Priest, Fr Ken Howell, who brought us up to date with the new church building progress. We viewed various images of the work in progress at Mary Mother of Mercy Church presently and other images of what the interior will look like at completion. The College is looking forward to having a church on the campus. We will be so much richer for having a “proper” sacred space in which to gather for prayer and worship. The whole church precinct will extend our concept of community somewhat as the St Vincent de Paul Conference will operate from their space in it and various parish groups will also use it.

We will be changed by the presence of the church because of its proximity and we are already very much aware of it as it moves towards completion in the very near future. The architectural beauty of the building exudes a quietly strong presence and demands attention in the local landscape.

The beautiful spring weather of recent days coincided with the church’s World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation, 1st September which Pope Francis instituted last year to highlight his ecological concerns. This year Pope Francis proposed that caring for the environment be added to the traditional works of mercy in which we are called on to perform as Christians.

Dolores Maitland
APRE

In praise of creation we pray a part of St Francis of Assisi’s Canticle of the Sun.

Praised be You my Lord with all Your creatures, especially Sir Brother Sun, Who is the day through whom You give us light. And he is beautiful and radiant with great splendour, Of You Most High, he bears the likeness.

Praised be You, my Lord, through Sister Moon and the stars, In the heavens you have made them bright, precious and fair.

Praised be You, my Lord, through Brothers Wind and Air, And fair and stormy, all weather’s moods, by which You cherish all that You have made.

Praised be You my Lord through Sister Water, So useful, humble, precious and pure. Praised be You my Lord through Brother Fire, through whom You light the night and he is beautiful and playful and robust and strong. Praised be You my Lord through our Sister, Mother Earth who sustains and governs us, producing varied fruits with coloured flowers and herbs.

Praise be You my Lord through those who grant pardon for love of You and bear sickness and trial. Blessed are those who endure in peace, By You Most High, they will be crowned.

YEAR 11 INFORMATION PROCESSING AND TECHNOLOGY (IPT)

This term Year 11 IPT students have been developing their programming and electronic skills using the Arduino Open Source Software and hardware. Their major project involved coming up with an innovative solution using technology to an everyday problem. The projects were entered into the Young ICT Explorers Competition and all teams made the final judging day.

Three teams accepted the challenge and headed up to University of Queensland on Saturday 27 August to present their inventions to the judges. The projects were assessed on the criteria of creativity, uniqueness, quality, level of difficulty and project documentation.

Team 1: Darla Tubale, Audrey Freeman Foeken, Tom Firman and Richelle Kennedy, created an automatic door opener for a dolls house. The idea came from Darla’s sister playing with dolls houses and having problems opening the door.

Team 2: Luke Harrison, Nicky Heck and Ewan Paterson created an automated dog bowl. Using a sensor, Arduino microcontroller and a valve they programmed the dog bowl to fill up automatically when it sensed the water was getting low. The students faced a lot of challenges when working on this project such as water pressure, having enough power to run the valve and sensing the level of water. They overcome all the issues and had their project working by judging day.

Team 3: Lucas Law Gezo, Cameron Lockyear, Callum Bellis and Tomo Csiki-Bege came up with the idea of creating an automatic wheelie bin lid opener. Using a sensor and an Arduino microcontroller they programmed the lid to open when it sensed something within a radius of 15 cm and close when you walk away. The judges were very impressed with their entry and they were awarded 3rd place. Each student won $50 and received a certificate and a photo with Leeanne Enoch Minister for Innovation, Science & Digital Economy.

Congratulations to all students who entered the competition, it was very impressive and pleasing to see the students work so well together as a team and tackle all the problems they faced.

Please return or re-new your Library books by the end of term.

Parents/guardians can assist the school by encouraging students to return Library books that they have finished reading. If you’re unable to find the book you borrowed, please contact the library. Overdue notices will be sent to parents & students next week.

The school holidays are rapidly approaching, which means we can finally treat ourselves to a fun read. Charge through a mish-mash of different books, soaking up thrilling plot lines and discovering new authors. Come ‘check out’ some awesome books from the library now!!!

Looking for something to add to your holiday reading list? Why not try some of these books?

- Scratch for Kids by Derek Breen
- Amazing (Mostly) Edible Science by Andrew Schloss
- The illustrated guide to professional haircare & hairstyles by Nicky Pope
- Ms. Marvel: No Normal by G. Willow Wilson
- Gotham Academy: Volume 2 Calamity by Becky Cloonan & Brenden Fletcher
- Hawkeye VS Deadpool by Gerry Duggan
- House of Windows by Alexia Casale
- When Friendship Followed Me Home by Paul Griffin
- Storm Horse by Nick Garlick
- Free-kick Pro by Jonny Zucker
- Dark Water by Cindy Jefferies
- The First Hunter by Robert Swindells

The Library provides a welcoming, comfortable environment for students to study, research or read. With exams nearly over, it’s time to think about returning overdue books!

We encourage our students to borrow books for reading over the holidays.

During the holidays it is wonderful to have a rest from the stresses of the school day, but it is important for parents to encourage their children to read books over the holidays. One way for parents to encourage reading is to model reading themselves or even have a family book club. Yes, old fashioned, but it works. This can be an excellent way to keep our students motivated about their reading. Students may borrow books from the school library to read over the holidays.
